

Where in the world?

A WEEKLY GEOGRAPHY QUIZ

Q: Beijing has an immense new airport that has opened for business. What are its International Air Transport Association codes?

- A. PEK and BJS
- B. PKG and BJG
- C. PKG and BJS
- D. PBJ and BIG

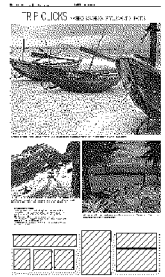

Answer the question correctly and you could win a copy of "Asian Business Customs & Manners," by Mary Murray Bosrock (2007, Meadowbrook Press, a $16 retail value).

You have until 5 p.m. Tuesday to submit your answer at www.courier-journal.com/travel. The winner will be chosen in a random draw from all correct entries. The winner's name and the correct answer will appear in this space next week. No purchase is necessary to enter or to win. For complete rules, visit the Web site.

LAST WEEK'S QUESTION

Q: Catalina Island, about 25 miles off the Southern California coast, is a favorite tourist destination. The is-

- C. "Last of the Pony Riders"
- D. "The Vanishing American"
- E. "Ben-Hur"

land is home to a herd of bison, which were brought to Catalina for the filming of a movie and then allowed to roam free. What movie was it that brought the woolly beasts to the island?

- A. "In Old California"
- B. "Catalina, Here I Come"

Seventy-one of 72 participants knew the answer is D ("The Vanishing American").

We'll send our randomly selected winner, Suzanne Phillips of Jeffersonville, Ind., a copy of "The Hidden Coast of California" by Ray Riegert (2007, Ulysses Press, a $19.95 retail value).

